TERRORIZES WEST WEBER WITH GIGANTIC PISTOL

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, May 31.—After terrorizing the entire neighborhood and threatening completely to exterminate the family of the of his neighbors with a big revolver which he waved over his head from time to time in a menacing manner as he stalked through the village of West Weber, Joe Buck was finally arrested by deputy sheriffs late tills afternoon and brought to Ogden, where he is now occupying a cell in the county jail.

Buck has been drinking excessively of late, and this afternoon, following a trivial dispute with one of his neighbors, he armed himself with a revolver and began to terrify the town. Deputy Sheriffs De Vine and Murphy placed Buck under arrest.

OGDEN, May 31.—With 4000 acres of tomatoes planted within a short distance of the twenty-two canning factories of Weber county and the present indications pointing to the largest crop in many years, the canning industry promises to break all records during the shipping season, according to former Mayor A. L. Brewer, who has a controlling interest in all of the canneries.

Weber county last year shipped 600,000 cases of fruit and vegetables. This year, without exaggeration, Mr. Brewer says, the number of cases shipped to other markets will be more than 1,000,000.

ays, the number of cases shipped to ther markets will be more than 1,090,000. Close to a half-million cases will be anned by the factories in this county, cording to the present estimate.

not box after all. Thompson has refused to make weight for the Italian, and the latter says that he will box no man in the world catchweights for the lightweight honors. Pleato can easily make 133 pounds ringside, and offered to allow Thompson to weigh in at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the day of the contest, but that was all he would concede to the near-champion.

"Rawhide" Kelly, Picato's manager, formerly Thompson's manager said Tuesday night that Thompson would have to make weight or there would be no fight. Kelly said he was not material his man with weiters and did not intend to until Picato outgrew the lightweight division, but until such time 133 pounds ringside is plenty good enough. Kelly said he thought that everything was satisfactory until the time came to sign articles. Thompson balked.

Thompson may now be matched with "Birdleg" Coilins, or Sullivan may be given another chance, the latter claiming he was overtrained for the last fight.
